The Voiceover Survival Kit

As you begin to work voiceover auditions and sessions you will find there are certain things you will want to always have with you. Here are some common items for a voiceover "survival kit." Feel free to add more.

- A copy of the script (if it was sent to you)
- Water
- Pencil
- Your cork (this will come in handy for quick warm-ups)
- White-out pen
- Small photos
- A small travel pack of tissue
- Throat lozenges
- Dry mouth spray
- Chap stick or lip balm
- A green apple or dry mouth spray
- A wine bottle cork
- Business cards
- Demo CD
- Blank invoice or agreement
- Other items you'll think of later
